What's Provided

Day care offered 8am - 5pm all year round. Fees include all art and craft materials, drinks, healthy breakfast and snacks, short outings, funding and admin support, equipment, and resources over and above the basic provision.

We accept 2-year-old Early Education Funding (up to 570 hours per year) for those children who are eligible. We provide this on a stretched offer throughout the term/year. In addition, we have a limited number of term-time only places subject to availability.

In Preschool, your child receives the care and education they need to be 'school ready'. Your 3-year-old child may be eligible for up to 1140 hours of Early Education Funding for the academic year. We provide this on an enhanced stretched offer throughout the term/year.

These hours are offered with full day care and will include a healthy breakfast, snacks, drinks, and enhanced resources/activities. These funded hours therefore incur an additional services fee. In addition, we have a limited number of funded term-time only places subject to availability.

Your All-Inclusive Package Account

Your account requires a PERMANENT WEEKLY BOOKING (PWB) form on registration but provides the opportunity to amend the booking month by month if necessary.

To ensure your child's time at nursery is settled and happy, our minimum booking is 2 x 5-hour blocks per week (on separate days and not including bank holidays). (Minor variations may apply due to stretched funded hours)

For amendments or additions to your PWB complete a booking form and submit it to the nursery administrators by the 10TH of the month for the following month e.g. before 10th January for February.

Monthly invoices are issued in advance i.e. by 20th of month for the following month - and due for full payment before 1st of month charged e.g. by 31st January for February. If the payment date lands on a weekend, please ensure your payment is made early to prevent any late charges occurring.

Any Early Education Funding claimed will be stretched across the term/year. There will be a limited number of funded term-time only places subject to availability.

Terms & Conditions

Parkstone

September 2021 - April 2022

Terms and Conditions

To help us to provide and maintain the very highest standards, provide the best service for your child, and peace of mind for you, we require all parents to be aware of, to understand, and to agree to follow and abide by, the following Terms and Conditions.

Admission

1.Children will be considered for admission to Sunny Days Parkstone when the Registration Form has been completed and returned to us, a permanent weekly booking form completed, a hard copy BCP Funding form completed or a completed online Funding Loop form, and Registration deposit paid, which together is an application for a Sunny Days Parkstone place for your child. If accepted a Preschool Manager, Admin staff and/or Director will sign and on receipt of a counter signed copy your application is accepted and your child is registered, and he/she has a place at Sunny Days Parkstone and is eligible to receive Sunny Days Parkstone services as available.

Welfare of the Child

2.We will do all that is reasonable to safeguard and promote your child's welfare and to provide pastoral care to at least the standard required by law and often to a much higher standard. We will respect your child's individuality, human rights, and freedoms which must be balanced with the lawful needs and rules of our Preschool, and rights and freedoms of others.

3. Parents give their consent to such physical contact as may accord with good practice, and be appropriate and proper for teaching and instruction, and for providing comfort to a child in distress, or to maintain safety and good order, or in connection with the child's health and welfare.

4.Parents of children who are not potty trained must agree for nappies to be used for your child whilst in our care.

Health and Medical Matters

5. If your child becomes ill whilst attending Preschool, staff will contact the parent/carer or the emergency contact indicated on the registration form. Parents must inform the Preschool immediately of any changes to these contact details - you can check these are correct via ParentZone.

6. If your child is suffering from a communicable illness your child should not be brought to Preschool until such time as the infection has cleared. A full copy of the company's infection control policy is available from the Preschool manager.

Parents / carers are asked to refer to the illness / communicable disease list supplied for your information on minimum periods of exclusion from the Preschool.

Terms & Conditions

Parkstone

September 2021 - April 2022

7. Parents/carers are required to notify the Preschool manager if your child is absent from Preschool through sickness.

8. Any child who has been sent home from Preschool because of ill health will not be re-admitted for at least 24 hours unless they have been seen by a health care professional who confirms there is no medical issue. If a child is prescribed antibiotics, they will not be allowed to return to Preschool for 48 hours.

9. The Preschool cannot administer any prescription medicine to a child unless prescribed by a doctor for the child in question. Should a child be on prescribed medication, it is the responsibility of the parent or carer to notify the manager or key person and to sign the necessary form of consent prior to any medication being given.

10. To prevent the delay of treating a child with an unexpectedly high temperature, the Preschool team will administer Calpol. The dosage given will be in line with the recommended dosage for the child's age group on the medicine's packaging. The parent will be required to give their consent before the dose is given. We will continue to monitor the child's temperature and if they remain unwell, parents will be asked to collect their child.

11. The Preschool team will administer non-prescription 'over-the-counter' medicines provided the child has had them before and it is known that they are not allergic to them. Containers should be clearly labelled with the child's name and handed over to a team member (i.e. not left in the child's bag).

12. We reserve the right to call an ambulance in an emergency and escort your child to the emergency department of the nearest hospital. Any decisions regarding the child's welfare will then be made by the emergency department at the hospital.

13. It is your responsibility to inform the Preschool if your child is not vaccinated in accordance with their age. If it is considered necessary, information regarding children vaccinated in Preschool may be shared with other parents, however, individual names will not be given.

Food and Dietary Requirements

14. We will work with parents/carers to provide suitable food for children who have a special dietary requirement as diagnosed by a doctor or dietitian. Although all reasonable care will be taken to ensure that a child does not come into contact with certain foods, even if provided with a doctor's note the Preschool cannot guarantee this.

15. Menus will be displayed in the setting and on the website for information.

Terms & Conditions

Parkstone

September 2021 - April 2022

Concerns/complaints

16. Any question, concern or complaint about the care or safety of a child must be made in the first instance to the supervisor in charge or Preschool manager. If the matter cannot be resolved at this level the matter should be referred to the Preschool manager or Director and should follow the settings complaints policy.

Disclosures

17. Parents must, as soon as possible, disclose to the Preschool any known medical condition, health problem or allergy affecting the child, or any family circumstances or court order which might affect the child's welfare or happiness, or any concerns about the child's safety.

Fees

18. All hours booked must be complete whole hours, starting and finishing from on the hour e.g. 08:00 to 18:00; part hours are not accepted.

Your child's PWB is required at the time of registration and will book your child's place.

19. To ensure your child's time at Preschool is settled and happy, our minimum booking is 2 x 5-hour blocks per week (on separate days and not including bank holidays). If some of your minimum weekly bookings fall on a bank holiday, we invite you to change them to a different day that week. If not amended, we reserve the right to charge usual rate for the bank holiday day. (minor variations may apply due to stretched funded hours)

20. Your PWB will always be applied in the absence of a Parentzone app booking request. We reserve the right to decline booking requests that do not meet our terms and conditions.

21. Fees are non-refundable in the event of any absences for any reasons i.e. sickness, holiday, etc. Your PWB will be applied, and this will ensure your child's place is retained open. Notice of absence is preferred where possible.

22. For amendments or additions to your PWB please submit booking requests using the Parentzone app by the 10th of the month for the following month e.g. before 10th January for February. Please note that unplanned additional bookings can be requested at any time, but they are subject to availability.

23. Booking requests made through the ParentZone app are an official purchase order and are liable for payment. Sunny Days admin team can provide basic support and advice on how to use the app booking system, but Sunny Days accepts no responsibility for the functionality of the software system.

Terms & Conditions

Parkstone

September 2021 - April 2022

24. We operate a paperless invoice system; invoices will be emailed by approximately 20th of the month for the following month i.e. 20th June for July's invoice. You can also access your account on ParentZone app. Please ensure your registered email address is up to date, ask your Admin staff for details. It is your responsibility to access your invoice promptly and to raise any queries with the Admin Team via email to allow response and solution.

25. Fees must be paid in advance and before the 1st of every month. Fees which remain outstanding on the 1st of the month will attract a late payment charge of a minimum of £25 or 5% of outstanding balance, whichever is the greater.

26. Our preferred method of payment is by Standing Order, Cash, Credit/Debit Card (NOT AMEX), Cheque, Tax Free Childcare payments or Employer Vouchers - Please ask your Admin Team for details. Employer Voucher payments must meet our terms; therefore, the account balance must be clear at the start of any month. Any outstanding balances due to late receipt of the voucher will be subject to a late payment charge - see point 25.

27. Any account queries must be brought to the attention of the Admin Team before the 1st of the first month. Any adjustments must not prevent payment of invoice - see 24 and 25. We aim to resolve account queries within 14 days.

28. Late payment of fees will result in suspension and/or cancellation of your child's place.

29. Continued late payments and/or failure to make payment shall entitle Side by Side Partnership LTD to charge interest, and additional charges, including all debt recovery costs and expenses, incurred in the collection of any late payments and/or any unpaid account. All Sunny Days administration and/or management time is charged at a minimum of £25.00 per hour or part thereof or Director's discretion.

30. Any cancelled payments will be subject to a cancellation charge of £25.00 and a further charge of £5.00 to set up payment arrangements again.

31. If your child is dropped off early and/or collected late, then a fixed rate charge will be applied for every 1 hour or part thereof and you will be charged on the next available invoice. Please check your current Preschool fees for charge rate.

32. Trips will be charged at cost. On trips, snacks will vary.

Terms & Conditions

Parkstone

September 2021 - April 2022

33. There will be a 5% sibling discount applied to your eldest child's account, providing account adheres to T&Cs. Any discounts applied will be to a maximum of 10% per child, providing account adheres to T&Cs.

34. In the event of unforeseen circumstances that impact on the welfare or safety of children, and/or on the ability of staff to attend Preschool, or for any reason at Director's discretion, Sunny Days Parkstone reserves the right to close the Preschool at short notice, fees may not be refundable.

Early Years Education Funding

35. From the age of 3 years your child may be eligible for up to 1140 hours of Early Education Funding for the academic year (if you have a valid code). If your child is not eligible for the full 1140 hours, then they will still be entitled to the universal funding of 570 hours for the academic year.

36. At Sunny Days Parkstone, we provide these funded hours, subject to eligibility and availability, stretched over each single term and holiday period, e.g. the Autumn Term stretch runs from 1st September to 31st December. There will also be a limited number of term-time only places subject to availability.

37. To claim your Early Education Funding, you must submit a BCP Parental Agreement Form to Sunny Days Parkstone or complete your online form via Funding Loop in advance of each academic term - we will email these out to you or please ask the Admin Team for a hard copy - if this Form is not received the funding will not be applied to your account.

38. The Early Education Funding does not cover our additional services such as art and craft resources, extra-curricular activities, breakfast, snacks, and drinks therefore an additional services charge of 80p per funded hour is applied to contribute to these costs. This fee has been calculated on an annual basis to keep the cost manageable and easy to apply and it is applicable over the BCP financial 50-week period to tie in with the stretched funding. This applies to preschool aged children only (3 and 4).

39. A limited number of preschool places with no ADS is offered for up to 1140 funded hours per academic year - these places are allocated on the following basis: siblings of existing children; waiting list children; first come first served.

Belongings

40. The Preschool does not accept responsibility for accidental damage or loss of property - please note this includes mobile phones and electronic devices. To comply with our safeguarding policy children, staff and parents must not use their mobile phones/cameras whilst in the nursery.

Terms & Conditions

Parkstone

September 2021 - April 2022

Insurance

41. The Preschool undertakes to maintain those insurances required by law. Details of these are available from the Preschool manager. Copies of the current employer's liability and public liability insurance policies are displayed on the notice board at the Preschool.

General

42. You should be aware that the Preschool occasionally takes photographs within the nursery, which may be used, in training, promotional material or on social media. Parental preference is adhered to and permission will be sought via the registration form which is completed at enrolment.

Safeguarding Children

43. It is understood that the Preschool is under an obligation to report to the relevant authorities any incident where we consider a child may have been abused or neglected. This may be done without informing the parent/carer.

44. Any information given by a parent regarding their child will be treated with the utmost confidentiality, except in cases where abuse towards a child is suspected. The divulging of confidential information relating to the Preschool, its employees or customers to any third party is considered a breach of confidence and as such is regarded as constituting gross misconduct which could lead to summary dismissal from employment or cancellation of a Preschool place.

Security

45. Parents/carers are welcome to visit the Preschool; however, we will not admit anyone without prior notification. It is the parent/carers responsibility to ensure that staff are aware of who will be collecting your child. No child will be allowed to leave the building with anyone, known or not, without prior notification and/or under the age of 16 years.

Legal Contract

46. The offer of a place and its acceptance by the parents gives rise to a legally binding contract based on these terms and conditions.

47. These terms and conditions are governed exclusively by English and Scottish law.

Length of Notice

48. One month's written notice or payment in lieu of notice is required from parents/carers if the child is to stop attending.

Terms & Conditions

Parkstone

September 2021 - April 2022

49. One month's notice will be given by Sunny Days Parkstone if the Preschool wishes the child to cease attending for any reason other than late payment of fees - please see point 28.

Policies and Procedures

50. Sunny Days Parkstone has developed an extensive range of Policies & Procedures to help guide good practice, and these P&Ps are continuously reviewed and updated, however may not cover every eventuality.

51. Any anomalies and/or omissions and/or unusual/unforeseen circumstances and/or any disagreements/disputes regarding terms and conditions will be determined and decided by the Directors of Sunny Days Parkstone, and who have the right to override any term and condition in the best interests of Sunny Days Parkstone.

Privacy Notice

Sunny Days Parkstone is a trading name of Sunny Day Childcare Limited which is a company incorporated and registered in England and Wales and we are committed to protecting the privacy and security of your personal information.

This privacy notice describes how the Preschool collects and uses personal information about the children attending the Preschool ("Child" or "Children") and the parents of the Children ("Parents") (known collectively as "You" or "Your"), in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

Sunny Day Childcare Limited is a "data controller". This means that we are responsible for deciding how we hold and use personal information about You. We are required under data protection legislation to notify You of the information contained in this privacy notice.

This notice applies to Children and Parents. This notice does not form part of any other contract to provide services. We may update this notice at any time but if we do so, we will provide You with an updated copy of this notice as soon as reasonably practical.

It is important that Parents read and retain this notice, together with any other privacy notice we may provide on specific occasions when we are collecting or processing personal information about You, so that You are aware of how and why we are using such information and what Your rights are under the data protection legislation.

Terms & Conditions

Parkstone

September 2021 - April 2022

Data Protection Principles

We will comply with data protection law. This says that the personal information we hold about You must be:

1. Used lawfully, fairly and in a transparent way.
2. Collected only for valid purposes that we have clearly explained to You and not used in any way that is incompatible with those purposes.
3. Relevant to the purposes we have told You about and limited only to those purposes.
4. Accurate and kept up to date.
5. Kept only as long as necessary for the purposes we have told You about.
6. Kept securely.

The Kind of Information We Keep About You

Personal data, or personal information, means any information about an individual from which that person can be identified. It does not include data where the identity has been removed (anonymous data).

There are “special categories” of more sensitive personal data which require a higher level of protection, such as information about a person’s health or sexual orientation.

Children:

We may also collect, store and use the following “special categories” of more sensitive personal information:

- Information about a Parent’s race or ethnicity, spoken language and nationality.
- Conversations with Parents where Employees of the Preschool deem it relevant to the prevention of radicalisation or other aspects of the governments Prevent strategy.

How is Your Personal Information Collected?

Children and Parents:

We collect personal information about Children and Parents from when the initial enquiry is made by the Parents, through the enrolment process and until the Children stop using the Preschool’s services.

How We Will Use Information About You

We will only use Your personal information when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we will use Your personal information in the following circumstances:

1. Where we need to perform the contract we have entered into with You.
2. Where we need to comply with a legal obligation.
3. Where it is necessary for our legitimate interests (or those of a third party) and

Terms & Conditions

Parkstone

September 2021 - April 2022

Your interests and fundamental rights do not override those interests.

We may also use Your personal information in the following situations, which are likely to be rare:

1. Where we need to protect Your interests (or someone else's interests).
2. Where it is needed in the public interest or for official purposes.

Situations in which the Preschool will use personal information of Children

We need all the categories of information in the list above (see Children section within the Paragraph entitled 'The Kind of Information We Hold About You') primarily to allow us to perform our obligations (including our legal obligations to Children. The situations in which we will process personal information of Children are listed below.

- Upon consent from the Parents, Personal Data of Children will be shared with schools for progression into the next stage of their education.
- Personal information of Children will be shared with local authorities without the consent of Parents where there is a situation where child protection is necessary.
- The personal information of Children will be shared with local authorities without the consent of Parents for funding purposes.
- Ofsted will be allowed access to the Preschool's systems to review child protection records.
- To ensure we meet the needs of the Children
- To enable the appropriate funding to be received
- Report on a Child's progress whilst with the Preschool
- To check safeguarding records
- To check complaint records
- To check attendance patterns are recorded
- When a Child's Progress Report is given to its Parent in order for that Parent to pass the same Progress Report to a school for application or enrollment purposes.

Situations in which the Preschool will use personal information of Parents

We need all the categories of information in the list above (see Parents section within the Paragraph entitled 'The Kind of Information we Hold About You') primarily to allow us to perform our contracts with Parents and to enable us to comply with legal obligations. The situations in which we will process personal information of Parents are listed below.

- The personal information of Parents will be shared with local authorities without the consent of Parents for funding purposes.
- To report on a Child's attendance
- To be able to contact a Parent or a Child's emergency contact about their Child
- To ensure preschool fees are paid

Terms & Conditions

Parkstone

September 2021 - April 2022

If Parents fail to provide personal information

If Parents fail to provide certain information when requested, we may not be able to perform the respective contracts we have entered into with Parents, or we may be prevented from complying with our respective legal obligations to Children and Parents.

Change of purpose

We will only use Your personal information for the purposes for which we collected it, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another reason and that reason is compatible with the original purpose. If we need to use Your personal information for an unrelated purpose, we will notify the Child or Parent, as is appropriate in the circumstances, and we will explain the legal basis which allows us to do so.

Please note that we may process a Child's or a Parent's personal information without their respective knowledge or consent, as relevant to the circumstances, in compliance with the above rules, where this is required or permitted by law.

How We Particularly Sensitive Personal Information

"Special categories" of particularly sensitive personal information require higher levels of protection. We need to have further justification for collecting, storing and using this type of personal information. We have in place an appropriate policy document and safeguards which we are required by law to maintain when processing such data. We may process special categories of personal information in the following circumstances:

1. In limited circumstances, with Parent explicit written consent.
2. Where it is needed in the public interest, such as for equal opportunities monitoring.

Less commonly, we may process this type of information where it is needed in relation to legal claims or where it is needed to protect a Child or a Parents' interests (or someone else's interests) and the Child or Parent as is appropriate is not capable of giving consent, or where the Parent has already made the information public.

Automated Decision-Making

Automated decision-making takes place when an electronic system uses personal information to make a decision without human intervention. We are allowed to use automated decision-making in the following circumstances:

1. Where we have notified Parents of the decision and given the Parent as is appropriate 21 days to request a reconsideration.
2. Where it is necessary to perform the contract with a Parent and appropriate measures are in place to safeguard the Child's or the Parent's rights as is appropriate.

Terms & Conditions

Parkstone

September 2021 - April 2022

3. In limited circumstances, with explicit written consent from the Parent, as is appropriate, and where appropriate measures are in place to safeguard Parent rights.

If we make an automated decision on the basis of any particularly sensitive personal information, we must have either explicit written consent from a Parent as is appropriate, or it must be justified in the public interest, and we must also put in place appropriate measures to safeguard a Parents rights as is relevant in the circumstances.

You will not be subject to decisions that will have a significant impact on You based solely on automated decision-making, unless we have a lawful basis for doing so and we have notified the Parent as is appropriate in the circumstances.

Data Sharing

We may have to share Child or Parent data with third parties, including third-party service providers and other entities in the group.

We require third parties to respect the security of Your data and to treat it in accordance with the law.

Why might the Preschool share Child or Parent personal information with third parties?

We will share Your personal information with third parties where required by law, where it is necessary to administer the working relationship with You or where we have another legitimate interest in doing so.

Which third-party service providers process my personal information?

"Third parties" includes third-party service providers (including contractors and designated agents), local authorities, regulatory bodies, schools and other entities within our group. The following third-party service providers process personal information about you for the following purposes:

- Local Authorities - for funding and monitoring reasons (e.g. equal opportunities and uptake of funded hours)
- Regulatory bodies - for ensuring compliance and the safety and welfare of the children
- Schools - to provide a successful transition by ensuring information about the child's progress and current level of development and interests are shared.

How secure is my information with third-party service providers and other entities in our group?

All our third-party service providers and other entities in the group are required to take appropriate security measures to protect Your personal information in line with our policies. We do not allow our third-party service providers to use Your personal data for their own purposes. We only permit them to process Your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

Terms & Conditions

Parkstone

September 2021 - April 2022

What about other third parties?

We may share Your personal information with other third parties, for example in the context of the possible sale or restructuring of the business. In this situation we will, so far as possible, share anonymised data with the other parties before the transaction completes. Once the transaction is completed, we will share Your personal data with the other parties if and to the extent required under the terms of the transaction.

We may also need to share Your personal information with a regulator or to otherwise comply with the law.

Data Retention

How long will you use my information for?

We will only retain Your personal information for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, or reporting requirements. Details of retention periods for different aspects of your personal information are available in our retention policy which is available from the manager. To determine the appropriate retention period for personal data, we consider the amount, nature, and sensitivity of the personal data, the potential risk of harm from unauthorised use or disclosure of Your personal data, the purposes for which we process Your personal data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal requirements.

In some circumstances we may anonymise Your personal information so that it can no longer be associated with You, in which case we may use such information without further notice to You. Once you are no longer a Child benefiting from the Preschool's services or a Parent, as is appropriate, we will retain and securely destroy your personal information in accordance with [our data retention policy OR applicable laws and regulations].

Rights of Access, Correction, Erasure, and Restriction

Your duty to inform us of changes

It is important that the personal information we hold about You is accurate and current. Please keep us informed if Your personal information changes during your working relationship with us.

Your rights in connection with personal information

Under certain circumstances, by law You have the right to:

- Request access to Your personal information (commonly known as a "data subject access request"). This enables You to receive a copy of the personal information we hold about You and to check that we are lawfully processing it.
- Request correction of the personal information that we hold about You. This enables You to have any incomplete or inaccurate information we hold about You corrected.

Terms & Conditions

Parkstone

September 2021 - April 2022

- Request erasure of your personal information. This enables Parents to ask us to delete or remove personal information where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove Your personal information where You have exercised Your right to object to processing (see below).
- Object to processing of Your personal information where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about Your particular situation which makes You want to object to processing on this ground. You also have the right to object where we are processing Your personal information for direct marketing purposes.
- Request the restriction of processing of Your personal information. This enables Parents, as is appropriate, to ask us to suspend the processing of personal information about You for example if You want us to establish its accuracy or the reason for processing it.
- Request the transfer of Your personal information to another party.

If You want to review, verify, correct or request erasure of Your personal information, object to the processing of Your personal data, or request that we transfer a copy of Your personal information to another party, please contact the manager in writing.

No fee usually required

You will not have to pay a fee to access Your personal information (or to exercise any of the other rights).

What we may need from You

We may need to request specific information from You to help us confirm your identity and ensure Your right to access the information (or to exercise any of Your other rights). This is another appropriate security measure to ensure that personal information is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it.

Right to withdraw Consent

In the limited circumstances where You may have provided Your consent to the collection, processing and transfer of Your personal information for a specific purpose, You have the right to withdraw Your consent for that specific processing at any time. To withdraw Your consent, please contact [the manager]. Once we have received notification that You have withdrawn Your consent, we will no longer process Your information for the purpose or purposes You originally agreed to, unless we have another legitimate basis for doing so in law.

Changes to this Privacy Notice

We reserve the right to update this privacy notice at any time, and we will provide You with a new privacy notice when we make any substantial updates. We may also notify You in other ways from time to time about the processing of your personal information.

If you have any questions about this privacy notice, please contact The Directors - Sunny Days Parkstone, Burden Hall, 144 Alder Road, Poole, Dorset, BH12 4AA.
